

USCG Auxiliary Safe Boating Course on Lake Murray

The United States Coast Guard Auxiliary is holding a Safe Boating Class open to the public over two (2) Saturdays, September 19 and 26, from 9:00 am until 1:00 pm both days. The classes will be held at Flotilla Island, which is at the end of Johnson Marina Road in Ballentine, SC. Cost is $ 35.00.

The course, "About Boating Safely," covers a wide range of material, including navigation, boat handling, safety equipment, trailoring, weather, and much more. The classes are taught by experienced and qualified members of the Coast Guard Auxiliary. The courses are designed for boaters of all ages and experience; there is something for everyone.

The United States Coast Guard Auxiliary is staffed by civilian volunteers who live and work in your community, and who are trained and qualified in their various jobs by the United States Coast Guard.

Seating is limited. Please contact either Don Davis (at 781-7150) or Al McCallister (at 749-9269) to reserve your spot. We look forward to seeing you there!

September 17, 2009